Al-Maseeh ki Hayat-e-Aqdas

अल-मसीह की हयाते-अक़दस

المسیح کی حیاتِ اقدس

With great delicacy the author weaves the personality of Jesus al-Maseeh into a tapestry of daily life and incidents in such a way that He does not appear strange or alien. Gradually the feeling arises that He is a supernatural being. As the story unfolds, our thoughts and hopes are attracted to Him. Like the characters in the story we begin to understand that He is not only the answer to our woes on earth but also the Physician of our souls.

Written in a lively form that brings this great prophet to life.

Written in a gripping style that brings Hazrat Yousaf to life.

Comparative Religion

A Muslim and a Christian in Dialogue

210 pp

Batchet: Apne Isai Dost se ek Musalman ki Guftagoo

بات چیت: اپنے عیسائی دوست سے ایک مسلمان کی گفتگو

When it comes to learning about other religions, most people are content with asking their own scholars for advice. Christians learn about Islam from their own scholars whilst Muslims learn about Christian beliefs from their own scholars. In general, the followers of every religion ask their own leaders what "those people" believe. Wouldn't it be fair to give "those people" a chance to explain what they believe themselves?

This has been accomplished in this book in a thorough manner. In it, the Sunni Muslim Badru Kateregga explains what Islam is all about whilst the Christian David Shenk discusses the tenets of Christianity. In the course of their discussion the differences between both religions become very evident. Despite this, both discuss these differences in a courteous and honorable manner. Every matter is discussed in a spirit of friendship.

Both friends count to the scholars of their respective religions. Their great wish is that people study both Christianity and Islam in a spirit of friendship. This book is the record of their discussions with one another.

Sun of Righteousness

14 pp

Aftab-e-Sadaqat

आफ़ताबे-सदाक़त

آفتابِ صداقت

Many people around the world celebrate Christmas. What is so special about al-Maseeh?

- He was born of a virgin.
- He never had to repent, as he was free of sin.
- He practiced what he preached 100%.
- His sacrifice for mankind was unique.
- His resurrection was unique.

Are Christians polytheists? We worship al-Maseeh because he IS God. Why do we know this? Because the scriptures tell us so. The Jews wanted him to be crucified because they understood this.

Al-Maseeh's sacrifice was unique because of his nature. If he had only been an ordinary man, his sacrifice would not have had an effect on us. Only as God the Son did he effect the forgiveness of our sins.

When the sun shines, it does not itself come into this world; if it did, we would all be burnt to ashes. However, its light does come into this world. In this way, through al-Maseeh God came into this world and gave us salvation, peace and joy. This is the reason we celebrate Christmas.

Good News For the Blind

8 pp

Andhon ke lie Khushkhabri

अंधों के लिए खुशखबरी

When the Lord came to this world, he met a blind man who could not be cured. His name was Bartimai. The Lord cured Bartimai so that he could see.

Some people are physically blind, but some are also spiritually blind. Only one can give sight, namely al-Maseeh.

A Heavy Debt: Who Can Pay It Back?

8 pp

Bhari Qarza—Ise Kaun Chuka Sakta Hai?

भारी क़र्ज़ा—इसे कौन चुका सकता है?      بھاری قرضہ—اے کون چکا سکتا ہے؟

Once upon a time there was a king who used to disguise himself and travel throughout his realm.

Now this king had a good friend whose son was put in charge of a fort. This son squandered his money and began using funds meant for the fort with the thought that he would pay it back eventually.

One day he learned that somebody would come to check the accounts. When he went over the accounts himself, he realized that he would never be able to pay everything back. He wrote the amount on a piece of paper and added the words: “A heavy debt: Who can pay it back?” Weighed down by sorrow, he fell asleep.

After midnight, the king came to the fort in disguise. He noticed that there was still light in a room and found the young man asleep with the paper in front of him. At first he became very angry. But then the king remembered his friend and signed the paper with his own name.

When the young man woke up, he saw the name and realized that the king was going to pay his debt. In due time the king’s messenger arrived and paid for the debt. This is what al-Maseeh did for us.

In the first class, the teacher tells the children to decide on the rules for class behaviour. Together they decide to abide by the following rules:

1. Do not lie.
2. Do not steal.

The teacher asks, "How should these crimes be punished?"

One of the senior boys says, "They should be punished with 10 lashes."

Later another boy steals the lunch of this senior boy. He is caught, and the teacher says that the crime must be punished.

However, the senior boy sees that the boy to be punished is weak and is not able to bear the punishment. So he tells the teacher to punish him instead.

This is what al-Maseeh did for us. He took on the punishment that we deserved.

He Saved Others. The Story of a Murderer

11 pp

Is ne Auron ko Bachaya: Ek Khuni ka Qissa

اس نے اوروں کو بچایا: ایک خونی کا قصہ

Two orphaned brothers grow up in the Caucasus mountains. One is god-fearing, the other messes up his life. One night the younger brother comes home in blood-stained clothes and tells his brother that he has killed somebody.

The older brother puts on his blood-stained clothes and is arrested, judged and hanged. Before his execution he writes a letter to his brother saying that he is confident that his brother will live according to his clean clothes. When his brother receives the letter, he confesses his crime. But he is let off. He now leads an exemplary life.

We are all like the younger brother. We are worthy of hell, because we sin daily in every way. However, God does not want us to go to perdition.

Somebody has to suffer for a sin; either the person who sinned or the person who forgave. If he forgives the sin, he is ready to accept the consequences himself. This is what al-Maseeh did. Whoever believes in him can be saved.

The Defeat of Death

8 pp

Maut ki Har

मौत की हार

موت کی ہار

Introduction: A woman mourns for her son, who drowned in a well. A friend of Hazrat Isa named Lazarus also died and was buried. Hazrat Isa raised Lazarus from the dead. He says, I am the resurrection and the life. The person who believes in me, even though he dies, will live (John 11:25).

How did Hazrat Isa raise Lazarus from the dead? He was not a normal person. God's power in him raised Lazarus from the dead.

Are you afraid of death and Judgment Day? Hazrat Isa says, I am the resurrection and the life. The person who believes in me, even though he dies, will live. Indeed, everyone who lives and believes in me will never die (Joh 11:25-26).

We need to believe in him before we die. What does receiving eternal life mean? Does it mean that we will live eternally in this world? No, it means that his life will be in us and we will live in him. After death we will receive a new body and will live with God.

Hazrat Isa also said that he will come back and take us to be with him (John 14:3). God is offering us eternal life. Will we accept it?

How Can We be Certain That Our Sins Have Been Forgiven?

13 pp

Muafi ki Tasalli

माफ़ी की तसल्ली

معافی کی تسلی

Are you certain that your sins have been forgiven?

One day a soldier who had killed innocent civilians came to his senses. The thought that his sins could not be forgiven drove him to despair.

- Nobody is in the position to have his sins forgiven.
- It is not sufficient to ask for forgiveness.
- It is not sufficient to do good works.

In search of forgiveness, the soldier left the army and became a dervish in search of forgiveness. Finally he met a person who lead him to believers. These taught him that by believing in what al-Maseeh did for mankind we can obtain forgiveness for our sins. Thus the soldier obtained forgiveness and peace of heart.

Two objections:

- Have we made forgiveness too easy?
- Did al-Maseeh really die on the cross?

Al-Maseeh's atonement was certified by his resurrection.

Love

17 pp

Muhabbat

मुहब्बत

مُحِبَّت

What is the most important thing in life? Money? Health? Knowledge? Creed? Love is the most important thing.

But what is love? There is a love between men and women and a love between friends. However, scripture tells us to love our neighbour.

Who is my neighbour? Everybody is my neighbour. This means that we must love our enemy as well as God. Loving God is the highest command.

How is God's love? He loves the bad and the good. It was this love that led to Hazrat Isa's sacrifice for sinners. Through this sacrifice we receive forgiveness of our sins. Thus the highest attribute of God is love.

We are commanded to love like Hazrat Isa loved us. How can we love like this? By receiving His love through the Holy Spirit.

Why Follow al-Maseeh

Misconceptions

47 pp

Ghalatfahmiyan

غلط فہمیاں

غلط فہمیاں

First Misconception

Christianity is a western religion.

Second Misconception

Whoever calls himself a Christian is a follower of al-Maseeh.

Third Misconception

The Bible has been corrupted/changed to the extent that it is no longer the original revelation from God.

Answer: The Bible itself strictly forbids changing even one word.

The example of the lost recipe.

The great number and antiquity of manuscripts. In comparison to this there are only few manuscripts of other ancient books, and they are not nearly as old.

The textual trustworthiness of the Injeel:

- The great number and antiquity of ancient manuscripts proves this.
- The great number of ancient translations proves this.
- The many quotations of the Early Church Fathers prove this.

The textual trustworthiness of the Old Testament:

- The great number and antiquity of ancient manuscripts proves this.
- The old Greek translation called Septuagint proves this.
- The many quotations of the Early Church Fathers prove this.

If textual corruption had happened then...

- Who did it?
- When was it done?
- Where was it done?
- Why was it done?

All of these many manuscripts are open to the general public. Why is this not the case with most of the old Quranic manuscripts?

Fourth Misconception

Christians believe in 3 Gods.

Answer: Illustrations of the Trinity from creation:

- the sun
- man

Proofs from God's Word.

The Trinity is a mystery.

The works of Father, Son and Spirit.

Fifth Misconception

Christians believe that al-Maseeh is the Son of God, whereas Allah has no wife. Neither was he conceived, nor did he conceive.

Answer: Son of God is the name of the second Person of the Trinity.

Why did the Son of God become Man?

- Through the Son God's nature was revealed.
- The Son is the only way to reach God.
- The Son is completely God and completely Man for the sake of man.
- The Son is the only way to salvation.

of al-Maseeh*

29 pp

Kamil Rah: Main Kyon al-Maseeh ka Pairokar ho Gaya

کامل راہ: میں کیوں ایل-مسیح کا پیروکار ہو گیا

After studying higher education at well-known madrasas, S.M. Paul felt called to defend Islam. In this context he arranged many debates with Christians. Here he explains why he became a follower of al-Maseeh in spite of this. A fundamental reason: according to the Quran and Hadis nobody can be saved including the prophet of Islam. Salvation can only be gained through al-Maseeh.

Perfect Intercession. Why I Became a Follower of al-Maseeh

18 pp

Kamil Shafaat: Main Kyon al-Maseeh ka Pairokar ho Gaya

कामिल शफ़ाअत : मैं क्यों अल-मसीह का पैरोकार हो गया      کمال شفاعت : میں کیوں المسیح کا پیروکار ہو گیا

Moulvie Imad ud-Din explains how and why he became a follower of al-Maseeh. After studying in Agra he became a preacher in the local mosque. In his search for intercession before God, he became a Sufi. One day he heard that his friend Moulvie Safdar Ali had become a follower of al-Maseeh. In order to debate with him he began reading the Injeel. However, this lead to his own conviction that the message of the Injeel is true and that only al-Maseeh can intercede before God.

of al-Maseeh

करबला से मासीह तक : मैं क्यों अल-मसीह का पैरोकार हो गया

کربلا سے مسیح تک: میں کیوں المسیح کا پیروکار ہو گیا

Barkatullah, who belonged to a strict Shia family, relates how and why he became a follower of al-Maseeh. Although he went to a mission school and received prizes for memorizing portions of the scriptures, he was extremely anti-Christian. One thing however that often caused him deep anguish was his sinful nature. One day his father became a follower of al-Maseeh. This led Barkatullah to a careful comparison of the scriptures. In the end he also became a follower of al-Maseeh and experienced peace from his sins.

The Trustworthiness of Taurat and Injeel

39 pp

Taurat-o-Injeel ki Sehat

तौरतो-इंजील की सेहत

توریت و انجیل کی صحت

Have the Taurat or Injeel been corrupted or abrogated?

1. God's Word is the measure of true faith
2. Corruption of the scriptures is impossible
  - The accusation of literal corruption was not raised in the first centuries after the advent of Islam.
  - The agreement of innumerable ancient manuscripts supports the trustworthiness of the scriptures.
